FIRE AT ALGIERS, LA., DID GREAT DAMAGE

THE BIG CONFLAGRATION WILL COST $500,000.

Italian Fruit Vender Charged With Starting the Blaze and Threatened With Lynching—Pennsylvania Village Wiped Out By Flames Prairie Fires Sweep Kansas.

New Orleans, La., Oct. 21.—Algiers, on the opposite side of the river, was visited by a terrible conflagration at an early hour yesterday morning. The fire started in fruit vender's establishment, and before the flames were controlled, nine blocks of buildings were in ruins and hundreds of families were rendered homeless. The territory burned was bounded by Morgan, Alix, Lavergne and Bonny streets. Many persons were asleep when the flames reached their residences, so rapid was the progress of the fire, and barely escaped with their lives. The loss will foot up over $500,000, with only partial insurance. Among the most prominent places consumed was the police station, the upper portion of which was used as the third city court, and the fifth recorders court, together with all the records; engine house, of Brooklyn, No. 17, and the handsome residences of State Senator Thomas F. Turnball and Councilman Barras. Paul Bouffia, an Italian, the owner of the place where the fire originated, was arrested on the charge of setting the building on fire to obtain $600 insurance. The police claim to have strong evidence against him. As there were threats of lynching, he was brought over to this side for safe keeping.

Mining Village Wiped Out by Fire. Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 21.—The mining village, No. 8 Stockton, was practically wiped out by fire early yesterday morning. Shortly after midnight flames were discovered in the house of Mrs. Michael McGlory. There was a high wind blowing at the time, and before the fire was under control twelve dwellings had been destroyed. The properties were owned by the Stockton Coal Company and occupied by these families: Thomas Burgess, Patrick Somers, Samuel McVey, John Taylor, John Mulhern, Thomas Miller, G. W. Miller, Jacob Bowman, Adam Kluck, Patrick Conagan and Mrs. McGlory. The loss is $18,000.

Prairie Fires Sweep Kansas. Topeka, Kan., Oct. 21.—During the last four days destructive prairie fires have swept over parts of four counties in Western Kansas and a large scope of country in Eastern Colorado. The started in the western part of Finney county on Thursday and spread to Greeley county, burning over a strip of country four miles in width, over 200,000 acres in all.

Indiana Village Scorched. Columbus, Ind., Oct. 21.—Fire at New Belleville destroyed the general store of J. B. Cook, the postoffice and four dwellings. Loss, $15,000; no insurance.

Y. M. C. A. Convention Closes. Chicago, Oct. 21.—The feature of the last day of the Y. M. C. A. convention, which closed at Evanston yesterday, was the announcement that William Deering, the wealthy Evanston philanthropist, had pledged himself for a gift of $15,000 toward a building for the association at Evanston. The convention just closed has been the largest in the history of the state association, 510 delegates having been registered. The largest attendance at any previous convention was 325, which was the number registered at Springfield last year. The convention closed last evening at 9:30 o'clock with a farewell meeting.

Presbyterians Fill Pulpits. Peoria, Ill., Oct. 21.—Presbyterians of Illinois captured the city yesterday. As early as 6 o'clock they were in the streets and attended a sunrise prayer meeting at the First Presbyterian church. A few hours later nearly every pulpit in the city had a Presbyterian preacher in it, and in the afternoon 2,000 people were addressed at the tabernacle. In the evening there was an equally large congregation. It was the closing day of the congress of missions, which had been in progress nearly a week, and the last day was the best.

Echoes of the Omaha Fight. Omaha, Neb., Oct. 21.—Some peculiar litigation has been provoked by the recent A. P. A. excitement in Omaha growing out of the police muddle. The mayor appointed seventy-five special officers to maintain order in anticipation of the threatened trouble. They were on duty several days and nights. The A. P. A. influence in the council prevented the men being paid. The men now sue and the same influence has declared that each case shall be tried separately.

Threaten to Bombard New York. City of Mexico, Oct. 21.—Raca Latina, a Spanish daily paper here, the organ of the resident Spaniards, declares that when Spain has completed the subjugation of Cuba she will send the sixth division of the Spanish navy to bombard New York. All the organs of the Spanish colony here are exceedingly bitter against the American people and war is a common threat.

WILL BE NO WAR.

Senator Davis of Minnesota Talks on Venezuela.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 21.—In the course of an interview on the Venezuela matters Senator C. K. Davis, for a long time chairman of the senate committee on foreign affairs, said:

"Considering the present situation in Venezuela and the action of the British government on the seizure of Corinto, I say most confidently that the United States ought to intervene in this business or formally and by proclamation abandon the Monroe doctrine as a scarecrow which will no longer frighten. I do not apprehend any war with England arising out of existing conditions, nor out of anything which we can foresee. She is a prudent nation, with all her power. She has given in the Dominion of Canada a hostage of peace to the United States far outvaluing the utmost that she can hope to obtain or inflict by war. I think that firm remonstrance, an attitude so unyielding that it will demonstrate the certainty of warlike action as the last extremity, will repress aggression, assert our dignity, secure our safety and vindicate our principles."

HAUGHEY ACQUITTED.

Jury at Indianapolis Finds Him Not Guilty.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 21.—The jury in the case of Schuyler Haughey, charged with aiding his father, president of the Indianapolis bank, in wrecking that institution, was declared a free man by the jury in the United States district court yesterday morning, and a most affecting scene followed. Young Haughey's wife and mother hugged the attorneys for the defense in their joy. This closes the prosecutions connected with the great failure in July of 1893, when over $700,000 was wiped out. The government proved that about $450,000 of this shortage had gone into the hands of the Indianapolis Cabinet Works, presided over by Francis A. Coffin, and the other $250,000 had been dumped into the Indianapolis glue works and curled hair works, of which Schuyler Haughey was the nominal head. As the result of the prosecutions, Theodore P. Haughey, president of the defunct bank, is serving a six years' term in prison, and F. A. Coffin is serving one of ten years.

ILLINOIS MASONs TO MEET.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—For three days this week Masons of the higher degrees in Illinois will be in session in this city. The Grand Commandery of Knights Templar, Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters, and the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons will all meet on succeeding days. The thirty-ninth annual conclave of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Illinois opens this morning at 10 o'clock in Masonic Temple. In the same place on Wednesday the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of the state will convene in forty-third annual assembly, meeting in Oriental hall. Thursday the forty-sixth annual convocation of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons will convene in the same place.

May Disrupt the Government.

St. John's N. F., Oct. 21.—The government has decided to order the arrest of several persons involved in the smuggling exposures, fearing that they would escape, and shortly before midnight last night four prisoners were taken, one being Michael Tobin, a leading government member of the assembly, and the governor of the Savings bank. Thirteen other warrants are to be executed today, and proceedings against the chief offenders will be taken before the admiralty court, which possesses summary jurisdiction. It is predicted these arrests will disrupt the Whiteway government, which is evenly divided on the question of a public prosecution.

De Lome Not to Be Recalled.

Washington, Oct. 21.—Senor Deputy De Lome, the Spanish minister, places no credence in reports that he is to be recalled because of the alleged dissatisfaction of his government with his work here. Up to the present time he had received nothing but proofs indicating that the home government was entirely satisfied with the manner in which he had conducted the affairs of the legation here.

Troops Defeat Cuban Insurgents.

Havana, Oct. 21.—Lieut. Col. Bush, with 150 infantry and fifteen mounted troops, fought the insurgents at Capita plantation. The insurgents fled, but the cavalry overtook them at San Vicente, killing three and wounding five of them. The bridge at Marrero, province of Santa Clara, has been partially blown up with dynamite by the insurgents.

Sympathize with Cubans.

Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 21.—Rochester sympathizers with the Cuban patriots are planning to hold a public meeting for the purpose of creating more interest in the cause of the down-trodden Cubans. They have been offered the use of the city hall for their mass meeting.

Alfaro Guarantees the Deficit.

Guayaquil, Ecuador, Oct. 21.—The combination of the Banco Union of Quito with the Banco Agricola of Guayaquil has been effected. Alfaro's government allays popular excitement by the Banco Union's notes by guaranteeing the payment of any deficit in the liquidation. The deficit may amount to $200,000 sures.

COLD WATER WORK STILL GOING ON

REPORTS FROM VARIOUS W. C. T. U. LEADERS.

How the Work of Improvement Is Speeding In the Land—A Power Has Arisen to Spread the Banner of Purity And the Crusade Is Helped Along Thereby.

Baltimore, Oct. 21.—At the third day's meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of America, the following reports were read: Mary D. Tomlinson, who read the report on "Parlor Meetings," said: "The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world," and an ancient Roman orator bestowed a flattering compliment upon the homes of Roman mothers when he said: "The empire is at the fireside." Thirteen hundred and forty-two parlor meetings have been held; 1,400 members and 308 honoraries were gained. Fifteen hundred and sixteen dollars were raised at these social meetings.

The report of the purity department showed that much good work had been done in the last legislative year.

The report on purity in literature and art shows that nothing may enter that defileth or maketh ashamed. The report finishes with the statement: "We scrutinize the literature on newsstands and have secured the co-operation of the American News company; also of superintendents of railroads, steam-boats, libraries, mail matter, bill posters, shows, exhibitions and art galleries. We have sent out petitions and letters throughout the entire United States for an elevated press, indorsed by the National Editorial Association of the United States by strong resolutions. Also by state associations; notably New York state association. With the support of the present president of the National Editorial association in the work for a pure press. Bill posters have been cleaned, and many states have passed laws for the legal power of this department. Others have worked for laws and created a strong public sentiment for purity."

WILL HAVE A BISHOP.

Free Mission Church of America to Admit Its Clergy.

Rockford, Ill., Oct. 21.—The conference of the ministers of the Free Mission church of America did not complete its work Saturday evening, and it was decided to continue the session over Monday. The newly elected board of directors has elected the following officers: President, P. J. Elmquist, Rockford; vice president, A. L. Anderson, Worcester, Mass.; secretary, Axel Nordin, Chicago; assistant secretary, A. P. Youngberg, South Dakota; treasurer, John Martinson, Chicago. The conference has decided to have a bishop at its head, beginning with the next annual meeting, who will have a supervision of the entire work of the conference. This position will be offered to Rev. A. L. Anderson, of Worcester, Mass., a brilliant scholar and leader and one of the brightest men in the church. A Bible Institute will also be opened at Minneapolis for candidates for the ministry, to be kept open three months in the winter in each year. This will probably be in charge of Professor Prince, of Minneapolis. It was voted to hold the next meeting at Joliet.

BLEW UP THE BANK VAULT.

Burglars Make an Unsuccessful Foray at Butte, Mont.

Butte, Mont., Oct. 21.—A desperate but unsuccessful attempt was made to rob Hoge, Daly & Co.'s bank at Anaconda shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday morning by blowing it up. Two watchmen, Thomas Hammerle and E. L. Kunkle, were asleep in the bank at the time and were awakened by noise coming as they thought from within the vault.

They left the building to investigate and just as they got on the outside a terrific explosion occurred, shattering the plate-glass front and ripping out the whole iron front of the vault and scattering bank books and papers all over the street. The cash apartment of the vault remained intact. One of the robbers was caught and identified as A. L. Firpo, a young mechanic who has lived in Anaconda for several years and was well known. There were several hundred thousand dollars in the bank at the time of the attempted robbery. The damage to the building amounts to about $2,000.

BRUSSELS DETECTIVES WANT THEM.

Brussels, Oct. 21.—English detectives have arrived at Bruges to identify the three prisoners—Russell, Anderson (or Allen) and Killoran—believed to be the notorious postoffice robbers, and a woman named Anna Jones, who were recently arrested there in connection with a big jewel and bank note robbery at Ostend. It is understood that the prisoners are also wanted by the United States authorities.

Ex-Gov. Beveridge May Get Well.

Sandwich, Ill., Oct. 21.—Ex-Governor John L. Beveridge passed a comfortable night for one in his condition, and there seems to be a slight change for the better. In the last forty-eight hours the doctors have taken new hopes, and are beginning to feel that there is yet a chance for recovery.

TWO FARMERS SHOT AT BLAIRSVILLE, PA.

BLOODY MURDER COMMITTED NEAR PITTSBURG.

Father Resents An Insult to His Daughter By Slaying Two Men—Fight in a Colorado Mining Camp Causes the Death of the Marshal and Two Others.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 21.—A double murder is reported from Bolivar, a small place near Blairsville, Pa. According to the story, two young farmers, brothers-in-law, were shot and killed by P. Kingsland, a wealthy farmer of that neighborhood.

It is said the young men, Albert Cable and James Brett, had a grudge against Kingsland's sons, and while under the influence of liquor went to Kingsland's house last evening. Only the son's wife and the old man were at home. The intruders insulted the woman and were ordered from the house by Kingsland, who, upon their refusing to leave, took down his shotgun and killed both men.

OUR FLOUR IS PURE.

Entirely Free from Adulteration of Any Kind.

Washington, Oct. 21.—Professor H. W. Wiley, chief of the chemistry division of the department of agriculture, has been putting in several months analyzing flours of all kinds—cornmeal, oatmeal and other similar cereal products. The result of his investigations are comforting to the American stomach and gratifying to American mercantile pride.

"I am prepared to say," said the professor, "that there is no such thing as adulterated American flour in our home markets. There are many grades of flour and meal, of course, of all degrees of fineness, but I have yet to find a sample containing deleterious foreign ingredients, or, for that matter, foreign substances of any sort. I looked in vain for evidences of earth or koolin, such as a considerable percentage of foreign flour is said to contain. Our flours are pure."

ENGLISH OPINION.

Comments of the Press on the Venezuela Question.

London, Oct. 21.—The Standard, conservative, has an editorial on the Venezuelan question, in which it says: "The Venezuelan ultimatum is unlikely to lead to prolonged or doubtful complications.

The convention of 1850 has been repeatedly infringed by the Venezuelans in encroaching upon soil indisputably British. These galling and high-handed acts might have been overlooked had not the outrages by the Venezuelan authorities reached lengths no longer endurable. If such an aggression as the Urman affair is to be ignored we might as well abandon British Guiana. We shall be surprised if the responsible diplomats of the United States persist in maintaining that the Monroe doctrine has any bearing on the present case." The Times and the Chronicle print articles explaining in detail the position of the Venezuelan matter, the latter paper especially as regards the American point of view, as indicated by the official reports issued from Washington. "There is no doubt," the Chronicle continues, "that the United States is determined to bring about an early settlement of the dispute. No answer to Mr. Bayard's dispatch to Lord Salisbury has yet been received at the embassy."

STRONG AGAINST DURRANT.

Emanuel Church Has Been the Scene of Many Orgies.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 21.—The prosecution in the trial of W. H. T. Durrant has found a witness who will testify that everything was not right in Emanuel church prior to the murder of Blanche Lamont and Minnie Williams. This witness is a colored boot-blacker named "Budd" Wilson. Last night when he was served with a subpoena he told this story:

"I know King and Durrant so well that they talked freely with me. I was surprised that such religious young men should be carrying on so, but I concluded they were about the same as others. I learned from those two boys themselves that they were taking girls to the church every night. I often heard them tell of the fun they had and of the different girls who accompanied them. I know myself of five girls who used to go there with them. The people in the mission would be surprised if they knew who the girls were. They all belong to respectable families, and the worst of it all is that their parents never dreamed that such things were going on."

WILL INVESTIGATE BOODLE SCANDALS.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 21.—The Peoria county grand jury will begin investigation into the alleged legislative boodling today. The jury has already been in session two weeks, an unusually long time, but every thing else has been got out of the way now, and the investigation will be pushed steadily. Subpoenas have been issued on Senator Niehaus and Representative Daugherty and Alva Merrill, Samuel Woolner, Jr., Adolph Woolner, William Woolner, distillers; Robert C. Grier, secretary of the board of trade, and Benjamin Warren, Jr., a prominent member, and at one time a candidate for state treasurer.

CARNEGIE TALKS ON STEEL OUTLOOK.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 21.—Andrew Carnegie, who for years has boasted of Pittsburg as an iron and steel manufacturing center, yesterday declared that this city's supremacy has gone to Chicago and Lake Erie points.

Mr. Carnegie protests against a ship canal being built, declaring lake transportation is tending toward ships of such size they could not be brought here.

He suggests a seven-foot canal for barges, and also urges that the canal be built as a public privilege. Otherwise, he says, Pittsburg will cease to be the steel city, and Chicago or some other lake point will hold the title.

GOOD REPORT OF THE ARMY.

Washington, Oct. 21.—The adjutant general has submitted to the secretary of war his annual report for the last fiscal year. The report shows that the recent change in the methods of conducting the recruiting service, whereby general service recruits are no longer held for three months for instruction, but are promptly forwarded to regiments from recruiting stations and rendezvous, has been productive of good results.

SENTENCED FOR LESE MAJESTE.

Berlin, Oct. 21.—The Vorwaerts says that Frederick William Horn, a national liberal and member of the reichstag, has been sentenced at Dresden to ten months' imprisonment for lese majeste, and adds that even at the expiration of that time Herr Horn will only be released on condition that he finds sureties in 10,000 marks for his subsequent good behavior.

WEEKLY BANK STATEMENT.

New York, Oct. 21.—The weekly bank statement shows the following changes: Reserve, increase, $1,203,275; loans, decrease, $2,285,700; specie, increase, $90,000; legal tender, decrease, $178,500; deposits, decrease, $1,567,100; circulation, decrease, $176,200. The banks now hold $15,380,175 in excess of the requirements of the 25 per cent rule.

INDIANA CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Greensburg, Ind., Oct. 21.—The eighth annual convention of the Christian Endeavor Society of Indiana will begin in this city Thursday, Oct. 24, and continue in session three days. Several celebrities of national fame will be present and participate.

FOUGHT WITH POLICE.

Julatto Fiend Causes Much Trouble Near Webster City, Iowa.

Webster City, Iowa, Oct. 21.—One woman died and another woman mortally wounded and the sheriff minus an ear is the result of the rash act of a fiend at Lehigh, a coal mining town near this city, last night. Reed Smith, a mulatto, aged about 35, in a fit of jealousy clubbed his wife in a horrible manner Thursday night and she died from her injuries yesterday. Yesterday afternoon

BEGIN A CAMPAIGN OF POLITICAL WORK

THE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORIES PLAN AGGRESSIVE WORK.

"Good Citizenship" Is Their Motto—Meeting Discussed that Subject Sunday Evening—The Mission Service at the Baptist Church—Other Religious Services.

Members of the Janesville Christian Endeavor societies are making plans to do some aggressive "Christian Citizenship" work this winter in preparation for the spring elections. Mark McNamara and Robert Knoff led the meeting at the Congregational church last night, their theme being "Christian Citizenship." A description of the "ideal citizen" was read. Many men who are religious every day in the year, felt justified in putting their religion aside on election day.

"A prominent brewer said "the churches can beat us if they half try. Our only hope is in working 365 days in the year and after they have gotten tried."

Some people already vote as they pray. The trouble is with their prayers. They do not wish or pray for anything which would be detrimental to their business "consequently they do not pray for the extermination of the saloon. It was said that although women could not vote their influence was one of the greatest powers and all should be careful in what way it was leading.

Missionary Meeting Held. The Christian Endeavor Society of the Baptist church held their regular missionary meeting last evening. Several papers and extracts were read, illustrating the fact that a more thorough knowledge of missions was necessary before people would give to the Lord "as he had prospered them" or go where he sent.

In the evening there was an interesting programme presented. Sketches of lives of a few prominent missionaries were read, besides songs and recitations by children. A largamap of Asia, showing the missionary stations there, was displayed. This has been recently purchased and will be found very useful. The attendance at all the meetings was unusually good."

Other Church Services. Dr. Hodge, of the Baptist church, preached a most helpful sermon yesterday morning, from the text, "Serve the Lord With Gladness." Special emphasis was laid on our service, whom we served and how.

The Thursday evening prayer meeting topic was announced, "Be Not Conformed to This World."

The services at the Congregational church were well attended both morning and evening. In the morning in the sermon on "Lessons From Nature" many beautiful and helpful thoughts were given. The subject for the mid-week meeting is "Prayer."

THE MICHIGAN RESCUE BAND. Interesting Services Conducted At The Congregational Church Sunday Evening.

The illustrated services given by the Rescue Band at the Congregational church Sunday evening attracted a large audience, and those who were not present missed one of the finest and most effective services possible. The services consisted of a short but very interesting talk by Rev. Dr. Welsher, one of the band, followed by illustrated songs and affecting representations of the evils of intemperance, used in a very unique way to give such vivid impressions that many were affected to tears at times. Their views are of the very finest quality, and are large and brilliant. The solos by Professor Camp and the choruses were all to the point and spoke volumes in their execution.

The band will give another free entertainment service tonight at the same church, and a grand, full entertainment of superior cast on Tuesday night with a small admission to cover expenses for themselves and the local lodges of I. O. G. T., under whose auspices they are here.

A Good Company. Mr. Hopper has gathered an exceptionally good company around him. Among whom may be mentioned Jennie Satterlee, Ruth Franklyn, Id Glean, Rose Tiffany, Clarence Handside, J. R. Furlong, Charles Sheffer and others. His principal songs are "Darling Nellie," "Dearer Than Ever Now to Me," "Nellie Mavoureen, Sweetheart," and "Heigh-Ho!" and with the assistance of an excellent company, he makes his bright character of "Danny Farrell" a famous one. Mavoureen Opera House Wednesday, Oct. 23.

THE DRUGGISTS ARE ORGANIZED

Superior Pill Makers Form an Association—E. B. Helmstreet Makes an Address. The druggists of Superior have formed an association for the protection of their interests and for the purpose of maintaining rates. E. B. Helmstreet, secretary of the state board of pharmacy was instrumental in the move, by instructing them in the state laws pertaining to the drug business and organized them into a permanent association.

The Daily Leader, in speaking of Mr. Helmstreet says:

"Mr. Helmstreet is a leading druggist of Janesville and is a strong advocate of printer's ink in promoting business. He is something of a newspaper man himself, being the originator and editor of the Wisconsin Druggists Exchange, a monthly paper published in the interest of Wisconsin druggists. He started this paper at the joking suggestion of a reporter and says that editing and publishing it has afforded him more pleasure than anything he ever attempted before. In addition to this he makes a good round sum out of his paper every year."

MRS. DAY ENTERTAINS THE PUPILS

Second of the Winter's Series at the School for the Blind.

The second of the winter's series of entertainments at the School for the Blind was given Saturday evening by Mrs. J. B. Day with the assistance of the talent of the school. Mrs. Day has not appeared before a Janesville audience for some time and she was warmly greeted when she came forward. Mrs. Day takes the foremost rank as an elocutionist and is seldom equalled and never excelled. A rising vote of thanks was given her at the conclusion of the program which was as follows:

Give Janesville the Go By.
London is located on the Northwestern air line from Milwaukee to Madison, and should the new line pass into the hands of the Northwestern it is likely that the through passenger train on the Northwestern between Chicago and St. Paul which has hitherto gone by way of Harvard Junction, Clinton Junction, Janesville, Evansville and Oregon, will be diverted through Geneva Junction, Elkhorn, Givette, London and Cottage Grove."

But how and where can thirty miles be saved between Chicago and St. Paul? It cannot be done by building the above proposed route, for there cannot be a half a dozen miles gained over the company's present route via Janesville and Evansville to Madison from Crystal Lake. Not only that, but the C. & N. W. has just completed a "block signal" system through this town and the "double track" plans are said to be complete, which does not look as if they were getting ready to abandon the line.

THAT NEW MAIN LINE HAS A FLAW IN IT

JANESVILLE PEOPLE NOT AT ALL CONCERNED.

C. & N. W. Has Just Finished a Block Signal System and Are Planning the Laying of a Double Track Instead of Abandoning this Route Between Chicago & St. Paul.

There is no danger of Janesville being erased from the C. & N. W. map, although there is considerable talk of the new road that, it is said, will be built to lessen the distance between Chicago and St. Paul. A dispatch to the Milwaukee papers gave the story life and this is the way it read:

"The contract for building forty miles of the Wisconsin & Lake Superior railroad from London Dane county, to Geneva Junction, Walworth county, has been let to George A. Welch, of Chicago. The survey has been completed and the work will be begun at once. The first three miles from London to Cambridge, will be finished and the track laid Nov. 1. This line when completed, will fill a gap in the Northwestern system between Lake Geneva and London and will give the Northwestern company a short line to St. Paul from Chicago, the distance being shortened thirty miles by the new line. While there apparently is no connection between the Northwestern system and the Wisconsin & Lake Superior, railroad men are of the opinion that this is a Northwestern move.

Give Janesville the Go By.

"London is located on the Northwestern air line from Milwaukee to Madison, and should the new line pass into the hands of the Northwestern it is likely that the through passenger train on the Northwestern between Chicago and St. Paul which has hitherto gone by way of Harvard Junction, Clinton Junction, Janesville, Evansville and Oregon, will be diverted through Geneva Junction, Elkhorn, Givette, London and Cottage Grove."

LOCAL FOLK TO GO TO THE "BIG SHOW"BOWER CITY DELEGATION TO VISIT ATLANTA.

Fare Is Cheap and They Will Have a Sleeper and a Pullman Car During the Nine Days' Trip—The Cities Visited all Have Big Receptions, etc., Mapped Out.

A Janesville delegation are going to the Atlanta exposition in Pullman car. Mayor F. S. Baines is at the head of the project and he and his wife will attend as will also Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Nolan, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Porter and others. The fare including sleeper both way is $26.50 and meals on the dining car will be 75 cents each. Mayor Swift of Chicago sent out the following letter in forwarding the scheme which explains the object of the trip.

To the Mayor, City of —, State of —, D. S. —: You have no doubt noted in the papers accounts of the movement of the "Chicago Southern States Association" (an organization composed of some of our most prominent citizens) to send a large delegation to Atlanta and other important cities with the view of making the northwest and south better acquainted. The association will be accompanied by the First Regiment, Illinois National Guard. By leaving Chicago the 8th and 9th of November the excursion will arrive at Atlanta in time to participate in the ceremonies and festivities of the 10th and 11th (days set apart for Illinois and Chicago days). To promote the ends in view, would you kindly oblige me by extending to our citizens an invitation to join with the association and citizens of Chicago in this move. By giving this as much publicity as possible we will greatly oblige. Further information may be had by addressing the secretary of the association, Malcolm McNeil, 59 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill. Yours most respectfully,

GEORGE B. SWIFT, Mayor of Chicago.

Chicago people are making great preparations. The board of trade will send about three carloads, or twenty representatives; the Union League Club sixty delegates; the Marquette about the same number, and the other clubs in a ratio commensurate with the membership of each. He plans so far made contemplate a special train, a band of fifty pieces, on the way at Nashville, Chattanooga, Louisville and Indianapolis. The programme in Savannah includes an excursion on board an ocean steamer, grand ball at the De Soto hotel and a old fashioned southern oyster roast, which is said to exceed a clam-bake as far as the toothsome possum baked in a own gravy with a breastwork of sweet potatoes around it surpasses a pie made of the ring-tailed coon.

Janesville people who desire to go will please leave their names with Mayor Baines. The delegation will leave Chicago on November 8. Saturday will be spent at Nashville, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday will be spent at Atlanta while Wednesday a party go to Savannah. Thursday will find them at Charleston and on Friday they will leave for Chicago on their way home. Elaborate preparations have been made in all three cities to which the delegation the town."

Traveling in America.

he London newspapers, since the fire disaster, have actually discovered that some sort of traveling in America is superior to the medieval faires employed in England. Says one of them lately: "The night boats by air are wholly and gratuitously minable. Why does the British public stand it? The American who travels by short boat routes insists upon a palatial palace, and he gets it. How are we to wait for like improvements in the Channel crossing? Surely not more difficult or less necessary a comfortable between England and America than between New York and London."

PATTI A HEROINE.

The Prima Donna Once Saved the Life of a Little Playmate.

Few people have been more interviewed than Madame Adelina Patti, and yet here is a little story about her which, I think, has never seen the light of print before. It was one of those things which the interviewer misses through his victim's modesty. When Adelina Patti was a girl, she was as fond as a boy of running, jumping, swimming and climbing. She was not by any means a tom-boy, and everything she found to do she did with decorum and grace. Adelina Patti was short, and generally sturdy. Her powers of endurance were simply marvelous, and among her schoolfellows there were none with whom she could not hold her own. It was on a Saturday morning in October, and Adelina, with a bevy of schoolfellows, had strayed into the woods and discovered a wonderful rocky ravine called the "Devil's Glen." Overhead the great trees intertwined their branches so as to effectually exclude the sun at all times. And below, in the central chasm of the ravine, lay a pool forty feet deep. On three sides the rocks rose precipitously, and slippery with the moss of countless ages, sheer up from the inky surface. On the stepping stones above the fourth the party stood throwing stones into the stagnant waters, and awakening the ceaseless echoes of the rocks. Suddenly a shrill cry went up; one of the girls had slipped and fallen head foremost into the murky waters. Patti alone of the whole party retained her presence of mind. Shouting to some of the girls to run for help, she gathered up her skirts and leaped from rock to rock until she stood by the rippling, circling waters. Then, throwing off her hat and cloak, she plunged in to the rescue of the drowning girl. Seizing her by the hair, she dragged her through the water to a floating log, and, clinging on to this frail support, she rested and soothed the frightened child. Then, half swimming, half paddling, she urged the log to the lower end of the basin, there to wait in the water for more than half an hour, when, at last, help came. Throughout this terrible ordeal Patti's courage never failed once.

LOST FOR AGES.

Discovery of a Buried City in Turkestan by a Party of Russians.

Information: In Turkestan, on the right bank of the Amur Diara, in a chain of rocky hills, near the Bokhara town of Karaki, are a number of large caves which, upon examination, were found to lead to an underground city, built apparently long before the Christian era. According to effigies, inscriptions and designs upon the gold and silver money unearthed from among the ruins, the existence of the town dates back to some two centuries before the birth of Christ.

The underground Bokhara city is about two versts long and is composed of an enormous labyrinth of corridors, streets and squares, surrounded by houses and other buildings two or three stories high. The edifices contain all kinds of domestic utensils, pots, urns, vases and so forth. In some of the streets falls of earth and rock have obstructed the passages, but generally the visitor can walk about freely without lowering his head. The high degree of civilization attained by the inhabitants of the city is shown by the fact that they built in several stories, by the symmetry of the streets and square, and by the beauty of the clay and metal utensils and of the ornaments and coins.

1872—Merle d'Aubigne, historian of the reformation, died at Geneva; born 1794. Professor d'Aubigne filled the chair of church history at the time he prepared the works which gave him celebrity. The first, "History of the Reformation in the Sixteenth Century," appeared in 1830. He wrote a vindication of Cromwell, and also "Character of the Reformer and Reformation of Geneva," and "History of the Reformation in Europe in the Time of Calvin."

1882—Dedication ceremonies of the Columbian exposition at Chicago and general jubilation throughout the United States over the anniversary of the discovery of America.

1884—Ex-Governor Dorset Bedell of New Jersey died; born 1832.

There is time for all the presidential possibilities to make mistakes between now and the next summer, but Senator Allison doesn't mean to improve the opportunity. General Logan used to say, "You could cover the floor of the senate with eggs, and Allison is the only one that could walk over them without cracking a shell."

Nobody but Mr. Cleveland will deny the truth of the London Speaker's remark that "popular sentiment in the United States enthusiastically favors every insurrectionary movement which aims at the removal of a European flag from American soil."

Spectators wont clamor for front seats at the next great naval battle. One of Uncle Sam's new guns sent a 1100 pound projectile 4000 yards the other day and drove it through fifteen inches of steel and twelve feet of ground.

You won't catch democratic congressmen voting for a higher tax on beer. The brewers are expected to contribute to the democratic campaign fund next year.

The increased number of failures of state banks is not calculated to popularize the democratic idea of conferring upon such institutions the authority to issue currency.

Some of those republican presidential booms are not very big, but they can give Mr. Cleveland's third term movement cards and spades.

The only answer Ambassador Bayard has had to his long Venezuelan note to England seems to be the Sackville-West pamphlet.

Beloit is as happy over the prize fight advertisement as if another summer resort "over the line" had been started.

Any mistake the republicans make in their state campaigns this year the democrats seem determined to surpass.

One thing pretty certain about the new republican congress—it will not make much hay for democrats.

Snow Ten Inches Deep.

Erie, Pa., Oct. 21.—Snow commenced falling at any early hour Sunday morning and continued steadily all day. At 9 p. m. the earth was covered with a fleecy mantle to the depth of ten inches. The storm is phenomenal, inasmuch as it is purely local. At Buffalo, Cleveland and Toledo the amount of snowfall was of too small an amount to be measured. The weather office reports that the snowfall was confined to Sault Ste. Marie, Oswego and Erie.

Hilton's Case Being Argued. Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 21.—In the district court Saturday Judge Holmes listened to arguments on the demurrer in the case of the state against ex-Oil Inspector Frank Hilton and his bondsmen. Hilton's attorneys contended that the office of oil inspector was unconstitutional and that, therefore, what money was received belonged to him. Judge Holmes took the case under advisement.

HOW HE CHANGED HIS MIND.
Sad Tale of a Tramp Who Wished to See Roosevelt.

Among President Roosevelt's callers the other morning at police headquarters were two who attracted considerable attention, says the New York Sun. They arrived about the same time, although they did not come in together. One of the two was Recorder Goff. The other did not give his name, but he was as fine a specimen of the wandering Willies type as ever adorned the pages of a comic paper. The tramp arrived first. He strolled into the waiting room and took a seat with the air of one perfectly at home. He was hardly seated before Recorder Goff came hurrying in. He walked up to the tramp and asked:

"Is President Roosevelt in?"

"Huh!" said the tramp, turning his watery eyes in the direction of the recorder.

A powerful odor of bad whisky swept over the recorder as the tramp spoke to him, and, with a look of disgust, he passed on to the inner room.

Then Mr. Roosevelt's bodyguard Tierney, discovered the tramp and pounced upon him, "What are you after here?" he shouted.

"I want to see Mister Roosevelt," said Willie, "an' I'm a-goin' to stay right here until I do."

"Oh, you are, are you?" said Tierney, and, grabbing the tramp by the collar, he rushed him out to the head of the stairs. There the hallman was waiting for him, and he was bowled down the two flights of stairs and out into the street.

Way It's Done in Connecticut.

In a Connecticut town some years ago there lived a peculiar couple, who selected the names of their children apparently with a view to educational exercises. There were fourteen children in the family, and they were named for the numerals in regular order, beginning with "One." The father was locally famous as a mathematician, and during the early years of his children they had a daily tuition which seemed extraordinary to their playmates, who were provided with everyday names. "Three and Four go out to the woodbox and get mother some kindling," the mathematical father would say, appearing before a group of his numerical offspring. Three and Four would keep on playing ball or whatever game happened to be engrossing their attention, but a diminutive person who commonly answered to the name of "Sev'n" was sure to drop his play and start for the woodbox.

French Prisoners Massacred.

London, Oct. 21.—The correspondent of the Times at Antananarivo says: "As the French advanced upon the capital the anti-European feeling became intense. A mob murdered and mutilated French prisoners and it was only the appearance of the French troops on the heights that prevented the massacre of the English in the mission hospital."

Kept Open Till Midnight.

Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 21.—The First National Bank of Puyallup, made a run on its depositors Saturday night, probably the first time such thing was ever done in the history of banking. Before midnight all were paid. The action was taken because of an attempt to make the bank pay $4,500 owed to the present county treasurer of Pierce county before paying other depositors.

White Poppies for Bee Stings.

Remedies for bee stings are numerous. A beekeeper advises always planting white poppies near the hives. ## COUNTY GETS $308 FROM MRS. SHAFER

SCHOOL FUND ALSO ENRICHED BY A $50 FINE.

District Attorney Jackson Agrees to Suspend Action in the Circuit Court Cases If the Defendant Will Pay the Costs, etc., Which Amount to $308.70, and Mend Her Ways.

District Attorney Jackson collected $308.70 for the tax payers of Rock county this morning, and at the same time was instrumental in the putting of fifty dollars in the school fund.

Ellen Shafer furnished the cash.

The agreement was made some days ago, but was not closed until today, when the case came before Judge Phelps in the municipal court, on the appeal of the defendant from the verdict of the jury who tried her at Oconomowoc. When the case was called Mrs. Shafer refused to prosecute the appeal, and was convicted by the court, who imposed a fine of fifty dollars and costs, which was paid. The costs included the costs of the justice court actions as well as those of the municipal court, and aggregated $120.38.

County Gets $308.70

Mrs. Shafer and District Attorney Jackson then made an agreement whereby the county became possessed of the $308.70. There were several cases pending against her in the circuit court, which had never been disposed of and Mrs. Shafer was naturally anxious to get them out of the way too.

She told the district attorney that she had sold out her hotel, and that if he would allow them to drop, she would pay the costs, etc., in all of them, amounting to $238.32. As a large portion of this amount was money that the county had paid out in witness fees District Attorney Jackson consented. The cases were not dismissed but can be taken up again if Mrs. Shafer should violate her agreement to refrain from selling liquor in the future. As the money received from Mrs. Shafer has already been paid out, getting it back will be a great deal "like finding it."

Drunks are Cared For.

Henry Squires and Thomas Kehoe were arrested by Officer Hogan on Saturday night while fighting on North Bluff street and were brought into the municipal court this morning. Kehoe paid a fine of $1 and costs, while Squires went to jail for five days. Thomas Nash was also charged with drunkenness and sent to jail for five days to reflect thereon.

Frank Nelson, of Evansville, who is charged with the illegal sale of liquor was also before the court, but his case was adjourned until October 25 at 9 o'clock.

Clara Schuman, who is charged with being a vagrant, was before the court, and her case was adjourned until January 1, 1896.

FUNERAL PARTY ON A SPECIAL

Several Janesville Railroad Men Attend a Service at Madison.

A number of local railroad men on the St. Paul road left this city yesterday on a special for Madison where they attended the funeral of the late Albert Hawkins. Mr. Hawkins was an old time engineer on the road and ran for years through this city from Madison to Rockford. The special left at 10:15 and returned at 6:00.

Among those who went from here were Mr. and Mrs. George Corson, Road Master George Bennett, Foreman J. C. Fox; William Dee, C. Harrison, A. Wilkinson, P. Rock, J. B. Callahan, August Abendroth, Charles Corson, Harvey Cone, J. Behrendt, W. Harrison, John Murphy and John Falter.

THE BLOCK SYSTEM WORKS WELL

C. &amp; N. W.'s New Device Is All That They Expected of It.

The new "block system" on the Northwestern road from this city to Harvard, was tested last evening, and worked like a charm. The first train leaving Janesville that was governed by the system was the passenger from St. Paul, due to leave here at 6:30. During the night fifteen trains were handled. Operator F. Marshall arrived in the city Saturday from Chicago and will have charge of the Janesville station, while Carl Johnson, of this city, will be assigned to duty at Reed's Crossing, three miles south of the city.

MAHONEY ESCAPES FROM A WRECK

Janesville Man Was in the Kenosha Smashup Friday

The wrecking of the stock freight at Kenosha last Friday came near resulting fatally to a number of men, among them being Conductor C. J. Mahoney, of this city, who was in charge of the wrecked freight. The fireman's leg was broken, but Mahoney escaped injury.

CHILD WAS CHOKED BY A BIT OF SHELL

LINGERING DEATH OF A TWO-YEAR-OLD BOY.

Little Elmer Shuman's Trachea Opened By a Surgeon in Hopes of Finding the Piece of Foreign Substance But Death Could Not Be Fought Back And the End Came.

Medical aid could not save little Elmer Shuman. Frank Shuman's two-year old son. With a piece of hickory nut shell in his windpipe the child slowly choked to death.

Sunday morning several children were in the woodshed eating nuts. Little Elmer began to choke and his grandmother ran out, emptied his mouth of nutshell and put him on his feet. He breathed with great difficulty, however, and it was seen that a piece of the shell had slipped into the windpipe.

Dr. Shepperd of Edgerton, was called, but found no alarming symptoms. The child grew worse during the night however, and this morning Dr. Shepperd was called again. He advised an immediate operation and Dr. W. B. Metcalf was summoned. Dr. Metcalf's examination satisfied him that tracheotomy, performed without delay was the only chance of saving the child's life.

The child's trachea was opened as low down as possible, but the particie was found to be below it and out of reach. Nothing else was possible and about ten o'clock the child passed away.

Additional sadness is lent to the death by the fact that the child's mother is confined to her bed by the effects of an operation and was unable to be with her little one in the last moments.

WHY SHE WAS SORRY.

He had been worshipping her for months, but never told her, and she didn't want him to. He had come often and stayed late—very late—and she could only sigh and hope. He was going away the next day on vacation, and he thought the last night was the time to spring the momentous question. He kept it to himself, however, until the last thing. It was eleven-thirty by the clock, and it was not a very rapid clock.

"Miss Molly," he said, tremulously, "I am going away to-morrow."

"Are you?" she said, with the thoughtlessness of girlhood.

"Yes," he replied; "are you sorry?"

"Yes, very sorry," she murmured.

"I thought you might go away this evening."

Then he gazed at the clock wistfully and said good-night. —Philadelphia Times.

THE PLAN ALWAYS WORKS.

Old Friend—I was surprised to hear that you had married Mr. Saphead.

Mrs. Saphead—Well, he persisted in hanging around me wherever I went, and there wasn't a night that he didn't call and stay until I was most tired to death. So I married him to get rid of him.

Old Friend—Humph! Have you got rid of him?

Mrs. S.—Oh, yes, long ago; he has joined two clubs and six lodges.—N. Y. Weekly.

CONVEYING ALSO A MORAL LESSON.

"Hello, Gagway! I am told you have taken to riding a bicycle."

"I have."

"Like it?"

"Pretty well."

"What's the name of the machine you ride?"

"I call it the 'Total Abstinence.'

"What do you call it for?"

"It's my only safety."—Chicago Tribune.

THE REASON.

Captain (who is questioning his company on different subjects)—Now, then, Sniffpowder, why should a soldier never lose his head in a battle?

Private Sniffpowder (mistaking the question)—Why, sir, because he wouldn't have no place to stick 'is bloom' at on, sir!—London Chips.

SHOES AND CLOTHING AT THE ANNEX.

HE OBEYED ORDERS.

The boy and Pat to paint a sign over the shaft politely warning strangers of the danger. Pat thought it out carefully, and then painted on the fence in bright vermilion letters: "Strangers will not fall down the shaft."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

COULD SYMPATHIZE WITH HER.

Irate Wife (appearing at head of the stairs)—I think it's shameful. Here have I been sitting up till nearly three o'clock! I'm quite dizzy from—

Hubby—Zhat's funny, m'dear. Just shame way—hic—m'shelf

It's just as easy to try One Minute Cough Cure as anything else. It's easier to cure a severe cough or cold with it. Let your next purchase for a cough be One Minute Cough Cure. Better medicine; better results; better try it. C. D. Stevens.

Cotton States and International Exposition at Atlanta, Ga.

For the above event the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway will sell excursion tickets from Sept 15 to Dec 31, 1895, good for return until and including Jan. 7, 1896. The rate of round trip will be 75 per cent. of double lowest first class fare.

It is a truth in medicine that the smallest dose that performs a cure is the best. De Witt's Little Early Risers are the smallest pills, will perform a cure, and are the best. C. D. Stevens.

The Present Generation

Lives at telegraphic speed—eats too fast, retires too late, dries not rise betimes, smokes and (alas that we should have to say it!) chews too much tobacco. The consequences are dyspepsia, a general absence of that robust and manly vigor which characterized our ancestors, and a manifest proclivity to early decay. Regular hours, a due allowance of time for meals, the disease of excessive smoking, and altogether a change in the habits of life, will with a course of H. H. Stomach Bitters Bitters will in nine cases out of ten efface consequences of the abuses of the laws of health indicated above. A want of stamina, dyspepsia, nervousness and biliousness are among these consequences, and they are bodily ill to the removal of which the Bitters is specially adapted. Nor is the Bitters less fitted to overcome the disease of the heart and against kidney and bladder troubles and rheumatic ailments. It is also a great appetizer and promoter of convalescence.

Homeseekers' Excursion for October.

On October 8 and 22, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway will sell homeseekers' round trip excursion tickets at half fare, with $2 added for return trip, to points on its own lines west, and to all points in Nebraska, Kansas, southwest Missouri, Utah, Colorado, New Mexico, Arkansas, Wyoming, Oklahoma, Indian Territory, Texas and Arizona. Tickets will be good for return on specified dates up to November 12.

The healing properties of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve are well known. It cures eczema, skin affections and is a perfect remedy for piles. C. D. Stevens.

Do You Ride?

As a bargain place for buggies, Taylor's repository is the leader of the surrounding vicinity. Anything in the vehicle line can be bought cheaper at Taylor than at other places.

A. G. Bartley of Magic, Pa., writes: "I feel it a duty of mine to inform you and the public that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me of a very bad case of eczema. It also cured my boy of a running sore on his leg." C. D. Stevens.

Reduced Rates to Atlanta.

On account of the Cotton States and International Exposition at Atlanta, Ga., the Northwestern line is now selling excursion tickets at reduced rates. For tickets and full information apply to agents, Chicago & Northwestern Ry.

Say, why don't you try DeWitt's Little Early Risers? These little pills cure headache, indigestion and constipation. They're small but do the work. C. D. Stevens.

For Sale Cheap.

H. F. Bliss.

There are many good reasons why you should use One Minute Cough Cure. There are no reasons why you should not, if in need of help. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. C. D. Stevens.

The Baby is Cutting Teeth: Some use that old and well-tried remedy Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP for children. It soothes the child, softens the gums, relieves pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Equal to the Occasion.

Mrs. Bland always has something pleasant to say to everybody. She puts all her friends in better humor with herself. She met the ugliest man in town the other day. He is really a curiosity; he is so ugly, and when she saw him he was worse than ever, for he had a boil on his nose. She couldn't say he was looking well. She couldn't say he had a sweet voice, for he notoriously hasn't. It looked for a moment as if she were bowed out, but she wasn't. She rallied gallantly. With her sweetest smile she grasped the man's hand. "Oh, Mr. S—," said she, "how do you do? You—you always do wear such immaculate linen."

Baroness Rothschild's Courtesy. Baroness Rothschild is noted for her courtesy. Recently she invited a famous prima donna to drive and dinner. After dinner she invited the prima donna to drive and dinner. "I had the instrument unstrung this morning, mademoiselle," said the baroness, "that you might see at the only pleasure that I promised myself from your presence this evening was the presence of you society."

Women as Licensed Distillers.

The new woman has broken out in another place in Georgia. This time she comes to the front as a distiller. A woman in Jasper county and another in Cherokee have been granted the necessary government license to enable them to establish registered distilleries from which to make peach brandy. These are the first cases of women distillers who appear on the books of the revenue department. There have been isolated cases of women who claimed to own illicit distilleries, but those have been Spartan women, who took the blame on themselves in the hope that the courts would lenient with them.

WETTING A LEAD PENCIL.

A Little Story About the Habit of Putting Things in the Mouth.

London Tid-Bits: The act of putting a lead pencil to the tongue to wet it, just before writing, which we notice in so many people, is one of the oddities of habit for which it is hard to give any reason, unless it began in the days when lead pencils were poorer than now, and was continued by example into the next generation.

A lead pencil should never be wet. It hardens the lead and ruins the pencil. This fact is known to newspaper men and stenographers. But nearly every one else does wet a pencil before using it. This fact has been definitely settled by a clerk in a newspaper office. Being of a mathematical turn of mind, he ascertained by actual count that of fifty persons who came into the office to write an advertisement or notice, forty-nine wet a pencil in their mouths before using it. Now, this clerk always uses the best pencils that can be procured—in fact, is a connoisseur in lead pencils, cherishing a good one with something of the pride a soldier feels in his gun or sword; and it hurts his feelings to have his pencil spoiled. But politeness and business considerations require him to lend his pencil scores of times every day. And often, after it had been wet, until it was hard and brittle, and refused to mark, his feelings would overpower him. Finally, he got some cheap pencils, sharpened them and kept them to lend. The first person who took up the stock pencil was a drayman. He held the point in his mouth and soaked it for several minutes, while he was torturing himself to write an advertisement for a missing bulldog. Then a sweet-looking young woman came into the office, with kid gloves that buttoned half the length of her arm. She picked up the same old pencil and pressed it to her dainty lips, preparatory to writing an advertisement for a lost bracelet. The clerk would have stayed her hand, even at the risk of a box of the best pencils ever made, but he was too late. And thus that pencil passed from mouth to mouth for a week. It was sucked by people of all ranks and stations, and all degrees of cleanliness and uncleanness; but we forbear. Surely no one who reads this will ever again wet his lead pencil.

LINKED BY LIGHTNING.

A Brunswick, N. J., writer says that Stephen Ayers was walking home from the Griggstown church with a young lady, rain began to fall, and the young man raised his umbrella. A few rods from the church lightning struck the ferrule of the parachute, and descending from the stick, paralyzed Ayers' left arm. The young woman happened to have hold of his arm. The umbrella dropped from Ayers' hand, but when the girl tried to release her arm she could not. It was several minutes before they were able to part the linked arms. Tiny dark brown scars were left on each of their elbows.—Ex.

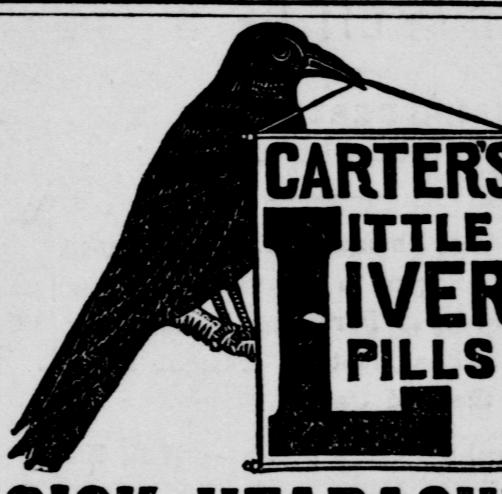

ANATOMICAL DRAWINGS.

A New York Woman Artist Accomplishes Wonders in a New Field.

Miss Fannie Elkins, a New York artist, follows a unique line of art which has won her a World's Fair medal and diploma, "awarded for accuracy, detail and beauty." Miss Elkins makes anatomical drawings for physicians and surgeons who require such in delivering lectures or in illustrating medical books. To the outsider the work at once carries grawsome suggestions. Undoubtedly it is an odd occupation for a woman to choose. Miss Elkins, so far as can be discovered, is the only American woman who has succeeded in making a distinct profession of such drawing. Once within her studio the idea of grawsome is almost lost. The room is pleasant square one, with a big window overlooking Fourteenth street and admitting a strong light to the table beneath. There are few of the manifold decorations and hangings which usually appear in studios, but the drawings, framed in oak and gilt upon the wall—part of her World's Fair exhibit—are not at all alarming. Among these the human eye, much magnified, is represented under several aspects, gazing out from circular mats of white board.

And that is how it happened that William Riggs has three broken ribs.

Refused to Accept the Apology.

The car was crowded, and when a passenger boarded it he was nearly upset by the sudden starting and tread on the toe of a man standing at the rear end.

"I beg your pardon," he said, very politely; but the man of the hurt too scowled and in an undertone muttered curses.

The innocent offender again apologized. "Yes, but that doesn't help my toe any," and he growled some more in an undertone.

Nearby passengers began to smile.

"I begged your pardon, didn't I?" said the other man.

"Yes, but my toe hurts just the same," was the reply in an ugly tone.

Then the other man's dander rose, and in very forcible language he said: "Now, look here. I accidentally stepped on your foot and I apologize for it. If you say another word about it I will give you this instead of my foot (showing his doubled-up fist), and it will land right in your face."

This warning was not taken, for he continued to talk about the clumsiness of some people. Suddenly the passengers were electrified by seeing a fist shoot, and the growler lay in the street as the car passed on. Nobody said anything, but some thought it wasn't wise to talk too much.

A Remarkable Pig.

A newly-married lady who recently graduated from Vassar college is not well posted about household matters. She said to her grocer not long since: "I bought three or four hams here a couple of months ago and they were very fine. Have you any more like them?"

"Yes, ma'am," said the grocer, "there are ten of those hams hanging up there."

"Are you sure they are all off the same pig?"

"Yes, ma'am."

"Then I'll take three of them."—Texas Siftings.

Thus Endeth the Lesson.

Her Mother—Bessie, dear, I am sorry to see my little girl show such a lack of respect for her seniors. When a neighbor comes to call on us you should sit quietly and not speak unless you are spoken to. You do not mean to be disrespectful, I am sure, but you should think of the impression you are making on our neighbors, and you will try hereafter. I hope, too.

Bessie—You'd better look out, mamma. You'll talk yourself to death.—Chicago Tribune.

Altogether Improbable.

"He is a man of wisdom and honesty and perfectly straightforward in his methods," wrote the new reporter, and little later he added: "He has been in politics all his life."

And when the city editor saw the two sentences in the same paragraph he tossed the manuscript back to the reporter with the remark:

"We try to avoid romance in our political department."—Chicago Evening Post.

Not True to Life.

"Don't you think that a remarkably realistic novel?" asked the caller, as she picked up a book from the table.

"No," replied the widow, bluntly. "On the contrary, I think the author goes to the very extreme of absurd romance, like all others."

"In what way?"

"He makes the hero get on his knees to propose."—Chicago Evening Post.

Nature's Wise Provision.

"Is it indeed true that the good die young?" said the young man to his grandfather.

"Yes, it is true, and it is a wise provision, too," he added, "for if they didn't there would be a lot of greatly disgusted old folk sitting around making remarks."—Chicago Mail.

Was Sure She Knew.

The grammar class was on the floor. "In the sentence 'I love you,' what is the mood of the verb?" asked the teacher.

"Sentimental mood," replied one of the larger girls, who had spent most of the summer at the seashore.—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

A Chance for a Dark Horse.

Sister May—I think if you should propose to Grace she would accept you.

Brother Jack (eagerly)—Do you? Has she said anything?

Sister May—No; but I know she was deeply in love with Harry Maxwell, and his engagement has just been announced.—Bay City Chat.

Musical Item.

Gus De Smith—Things are pretty evenly distributed in this world, after all.

Hostetter McGinnis—How so?

Gus De Smith—The piano has spoiled many a good dishwasher, and many a dishwasher has spoiled a piano.—Texas Siftings.

A Modern Martyr.

"What makes you look so worn and weary. As if you were quite tired of life?"

"Alas!" he sighed, in accents dreary.

"I've just been shopping with my wife."

A DIFFERENCE.

"Did Jack propose to you this evening?"

"Well, not exactly; he asked me if I could afford a husband."—Pick-Me-Up.

The Reason Why.

Teacher—Freddie, you were not at school yesterday.

Freddie—No, I wasn't able to come.

Teacher—What was the matter?

Freddie—Papa caught me smoking a cigarette.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Unanswered.

They were playing at Copenhagen. Said the black-eyed girl: "What a rough fellow Mr. Sniggle is. He nearly smothered me."

Replied the young lady with curls: "And did you kiss him for his smother?"—Boston Transcript.

His One Fear.

Merritt—Under the circumstances, why don't you go west and get a divorce?

Cobwagger—Because if I had a divorce I might be fool enough to marry again.—Life.

Can't Pay Him.

Mr. Highfi—Where is that "Book of Etiquette and Complete Letter Writer?"

Mrs. H.—What do you want it for?

Mr. H.—I want to write to the grocer to tell him I can't pay him.—N. Y. Journal.

Woman's Sphere.

"And what is woman's sphere, forsooth?"

The dancing beauty said:

"In my opinion it's a ball."

And tossed her pretty head.

—Detroit Free Press.

A Heavy Blow.

"Henry, you look worried; what is the trouble?"

"I was stung to the quick by an adder this afternoon."

"Heavens! How did it happen?"

"Why, I went to the bank this afternoon, and the bank clerk, after adding up the ledger, told me my account was overdrawn."—Eric Messenger.

An Expansive Smile.

Hostetter McGinnis—Did you give the bouquet to the young lady?

Sam Johnsing—Yes, sah.

"Did she smile?"

"She did, sah."

"Did she smile pleasantly?"

"Yes, sah, she smiled just like I mount if you gives me half a dollar."—Texas Siftings.

Hardly Worth While.

"You are now thirteen years old, Miss Fanny, and you can hardly write your own name."

"That's a fact; but it will be such a short time before I get another name that it is hardly worth while learning to write my present one."—Texas Siftings.

He Still Hoped.

Mrs. Quiverful—Forty years old, Mr. Singleton, and never been married? What a singular thing! But, surely, you have not given up all hope?

Mr. Singleton—No, indeed! I hope I am safe for another forty years, any way.—N. Y. World.

Everything in Order.

Mistress—Mary, where did you put my hat?

Maid—Shure, on the head of the bed, ma'am.

Mistress—Well, where is my slipper? Maid—On the foot of the bed, ma'am, to be sure!—Truth.

"I have a dear little babe, and am well. I thank Mrs. Pinkham for this, and so could other motherless women. I was a victim of female troubles.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me!"

Mrs. GEO. C. KIRCHNER,

thoroughly made with silk thread and good strong linings, in All Wool fabrics such as

Cassimeres and Cheviots at $6, $7, $8 and $10.

If you need a Fall Suit you can't afford to miss seeing these.

THE MOST POPULAR OVERCOATS !

we are showing this season are the long cut Freize Ulsters with wide collars. We can give you a dandy for $10.00. We have a still better quality of the garment at $15.00, and one that is finished better for $18.00. Any one of these coats are well worth the money. They are all stylish, handsome coats. Probably as pretty a garment as you ever saw is our Patent Beaver in either brown or black. In finish, style and make-up it is indeed a beauty and should you order one like it from a tailor with the same trimmings it would cost not less than $40.00. We make a price of $25.00 on it and guarantee the coat cannot be equaled in the city for that money.

Our Overcoat Department is complete throughout.
Largest in the city.

TWO THOUSAND PIECES OF

ALL SILK RIBBONS !

WILL BE PLACED ON SALE AT

4c, 6c, 8c, 10c and 12½c.

They come in every shade and in all widths. We placed an order on this lot of Ribbons with the manufacturers some time ago and thereby secured them before the present great advance in Ribbons, and at the prices we offer them at, our patrons secure them as cheap as we could today buy them. We are assured by the manufacturers that there will be a still further advance of about 20 per cent on these Silk Ribbons before December and there is a chance now to secure your Christmas Ribbons at prices that you may not be able to get again.

This advance in Ribbons is a genuine advance and any person who is posted on Ribbons will tell you the same story.

We have the prettiest line of colors and the greatest quantity of Ribbons ever opened in this city. Come in Tuesday and get what you want at 4c, 6c, 8c, 10c and 12½c. according to width.
